RLTSC NEWS

It was great to see so many up on Saturday and there was a great Buzz as at last the weather has now resembled something like a Summer!

It's great to see so many new Members joining the Club - 33 in all! We have 21 Squash members of which 14 are Adult only members, 4 are Junior members, and 3 are Mini. We also have 12 Full Members comprising 5 Adult, 5 Juniors and 2 Mini. A big welcome to all! I hope those family members will join us in May, when we will now be running a Parent & Child competition.

Tickets are still on Sale for the return of The Paul Hodgson Quartet on Saturday 28th April for a price of only £15 inclusive of a sumptuous Buffet.

Lastly the Wimbledon Ballot will be held on the 25th April at 7pm. If you have opted in but can't attend, please appoint a proxy to attend on your behalf! A further notice will be sent out!

Tennis News

Our summer tennis teams started their league campaigns in April with 2 wins and a loss to report with the Men's A team beating West Herts. Men's Hot Racquets beating St Albans and a narrow loss by the Men's C team against David Lloyd Bushey. Ladies please remember to send in your results for inclusion!

An apology is in order as there was a clash on Saturday with the league game scheduled at 1pm, which made it difficult to get a court particularly with the Sun out. Unfortunately, the League decides the dates and times, but we will try and reschedule where we can to start at 12 so as not to clash with the Social Tennis.

Remember if you would like to be selected for a Team please contact the captains whose details are on the RLTSC website in the Tennis Team section, and the coaching team can help advise on the standard of the teams. Alternatively, please contact Alison at alisonargyle64@gmail.com.

Squash News

The Squash Championships have started in earnest so hopefully in the next newsletter we will have some results to share!
