RLTSC NEWS

Some great headlines to report this week! Firstly, fantastic news to report as our Ladies 1 team have won the Herts Premier division against some very tough opposition and are promoted to the Championship division, the top-flight division of the Herts league. Well done to Karen Curran and her team, see below.

Just a reminder that Turbo Tennis will start on the 8th September in the Saturday socials and continue once a month. Please remember to sign up on the website www.rltsc.com, by the Friday.

Lastly the RLTSC Closed Tournament is starting where the matches will be played over the 2 weeks from September 2nd to 16th. There will be round-robins on Saturday/Sunday 15th/16th. For which balls will be provided.

Please come along over the weekend and have a drink in the bar!

Squash News

Tennis News

More results from the ladies now!

The Ladies 2 team have finished bang in the middle of Division 2A which is a very respectable position.

The Ladies A team in the Watford and District league came 3rd in Division 1 which is a brilliant achievement, since the standard is very high, and the Ladies C team finished mid table in Division 5. The Ladies B team unfortunately found it tough going in Division 3, narrowly missing out on many matches losing 5-4, and will go down next season to Division 4.

The Hot Rackets league in the first season for Ladies 1 they finished mid table in a strong league, and indeed Ladies 2 & the Ladies 3 also finished mid table in their leagues.

The Mixed Teams in the Watford & District league had a fun season, with many different pairings, and both and A and B teams finished mid table for their respective Divisions 2 and 5.

The Ladies C team Danine Irwin reports that "the team narrowly missed 3rd place, pipped at the post by Bovingdon whom although won one more match, earned less games and rubbers than Radlett. The team's squad was perfectly unified as demonstrated by welcoming new players to the team, who certainly proved their worth. The Radlett ladies proved themselves to be a tough and tricky opposition".

And finally, some Men's Team News. The C Team ably captained by Andy "the Lean machine" needs all our support on Monday where they must beat Cassiobury to earn promotion! Good luck and given they just beat them away hopefully this is achievable.

So back to the Radlett Ladies 1st Team, winners of the Premier Division

Everybody listed above contributed to these fine wins. I was extremely proud to be their Captain for this year."

Last and by no means least, a huge thanks to all the team captains - Karen, Alison, Jenny, Jeanette, Danine, Suzi, Wendy, Fizz, Marion, Richard, Simon S, Jordan, Jeremy, me, Simon H and Andy L – who have tirelessly organised the teams for each match, enabling us to have competitive tennis across all standards at Radlett.
